

RO-INMED 2017/ NOTICE TO THE AUTHORS /

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Abstracts in Romanian and English will be received only by e-mail (cornelmdvn@yahoo.com). Submission deadline is September 15, 2017. Notification of acceptance or refusal of the paper will be sent no later than October 15, 2017 by e-mail to the author.

ABSTRACTS and PAPERS

1. These guidelines are intended to assist the authors with preparation with proceedings manuscript. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Corneliu Moldovan at cornelmdvn@yahoo.com

2. Languages: English (for foreign participants)/ Romanian and English (for Romanian participants)

3. Abstract instructions

Limit abstract at 200 words. Include a list of up to 8 keywords following abstract. Use sample manuscript page for instruction on Title, Authors and Affiliations/ Address/ Sponsors and body text

4. Formatting instructions

a. Use “Microsoft Word” Editor and save the document as .doc or .docx.

b. Page setup: use an A4 (210x297mm) page, portrait orientation; margins top/bottom: 2, 54 cm; margins left/right: 3, 17 cm; header/footer: 1, 27 cm; Font: “Times New Roman” 12 (Normal). Paragraphs: double space between paragraphs. Indentation is optional. Page numbers: insert page number at the bottom of page (footer) in the right corner. Begin with the 1st page.

c. Illustrations in jpeg or jpg format should be original of a black and white pattern (or gray tones) or color ones. High quality photos may be used.

4. All abstracts will be reviewed and selected by the Scientific Committee. A paper may be accepted by the Scientific Committee for either oral presentation, or for presentation as a poster, or it may be rejected. The time available for each oral presentation is between 15 and 30 minutes, depending on the Scientific Committee approval.

5. Upon receipt, manuscripts and illustrations become the INMCA property and will not be returned to the author Copyright ownership statement, INMCA©2017 2

ABSTRACT MODEL:

.....

TITLE OF PAPER

(Keep title brief and point to the subject, center the title, capitalize all the words, boldfaced, spell out acronyms)

Author(s)1 (center, boldface)

Affiliations (Center, please provide a complete address and affiliation for each author after superscript number (1, etc.), do not use bold)

Keyword: (capitalize the first letter, boldfaced; insert a list of up to eight keywords between the abstract and the text body)

ABSTRACT (begin abstract two lines bellow the address, capitalize, center and boldfaced) Type abstract body in a text box, no more than 200 words, do not use boldfaced, do not indent.

.....

PAPER MODEL:

.....

TITLE OF PAPER

(Keep title brief and point to the subject, center the title, capitalize all the words, boldfaced, spell out acronyms)

Author(s) 1 (center, boldface)

Affiliations (Center, please provide a complete address and affiliation for each author after superscript number (1, etc.), do not use bold)

ABSTRACT

(Principal headings. Type on a separate line, all capital letters and boldfaced or underlined, double-space between paragraphs. Number sections sequentially)

1. INTRODUCTION

Please do not put an indent at the beginning of the paragraph. Do not use boldfaced. Number subsections (e.g. 1.1/ 1.1.1, etc.).

2. MATERIALS AND METHODS

3. RESULTS

4. DISSCUTIONS

Note that reference citations should be typed in the text as superscripts

(e.g. 1, etc.)

5. CONCLUSIONS

6. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All acknowledgments for financial and technical support should be inserting in this section.

7. REFERENCES 3

[List 1-10 reference citations, in a standard format. Citations are formatted according to the rules established for Index Medicus ®, e.g.: Journal Article: Clavel-Chapelon F, Paoletti C, Benhamou S. Smoking cessation rates 4 years after treatment by nicotine gum and acupuncture. Prev Med 1997 Jan-Feb;26(1):25-8.

Monograph: Example: Lytle CD. An overview of acupuncture. Rockville (MD): Public Health Service, Food and Drug Administration, Center for Devices and Radiological Health; 1993 May. 33 p.

Conference Proceedings: Example: Jenerick HP, editor. Proceedings. NIH Acupuncture Research Conference; 1973; Bethesda, MD. [Bethesda (MD)]: National Institute of General Medical Sciences; [1974]. 145 p. (DHEW publication; no. (NIH) 74-165).]

.....
.....
.....

Example of Abstract:

THE FASCINATION OF TRADITION: THE ACUPUNCTURE

Author: Beyens François, MD

Honorary President of ICMART, Belgium

RO-INMED 2013

Abstracts/ Editor: C. Moldovan © INMCA 2013 ABSTRACT

Tradition is part of culture which implies beliefs and acceptance according to the context of history and knowledge. Therefore Tradition draws its strength on continuity and on permanence. A background in time, a wealth of information transmitted through generations, an accumulation of experience, and an array of theories, thoughts and arguments. What does Tradition do to acupuncture in modern times? Does it help or hinder? Does it immobilize or stimulate? Does it have the final vote? We are all originating from civilizations or cultures relying on customs, habits or traditions. Our existence is modeled according to our past and then modified according to modern adaptations due to the progress in sciences and social behavior, according to individual and group tendencies, according to art, techniques and ethnic profiles. In the field of medicine the weight of Tradition has ambiguous effects. The part of experience it carries in itself is certainly a good start for understanding. Then modern and scientific approaches must prevail to sort out the part of blind faith always carried in Tradition from the actual pragmatic usefulness accompanying generally age old knowledge and techniques. To think about Tradition, especially in the case of acupuncture, gives us clues on where we should stand in front of this enormous amount of information. It allows us to examine from a distance the texts and references, the many schools and techniques. Then we might see acupuncture from a different perspective. I am giving here a small example of how the word “tradition” can be misleading and how information carried through centuries is not always accurate. I could call it: “Chasing the Midday-Midnight rule”.